

Dear Crestview families,

We hope that you had a wonderful weekend.

Below are some reminders and updates for the week of November 25th, 2024

Parent Teacher Night

- We hope that you had a productive parent teacher night.
- Ms. Tsimiklis, Ms. Gauthier, and Ms. Vogel are available if you require any additional information or support.
- Please reach out to them via email, as a reminder, we have an open-door policy and like to hear from our community.
- Please remember to return your child's IEP signed back to school.

Scholastic Book Fair

- Thank you to all who came to support our Book Fair!
- All funds raised will support our beautiful library!

Weather Watch

A "mixed bag" of precipitation is in store tomorrow according to Environment and Climate Change Canada (ECCC).

Tuesday, snowfall amounts ranging from two to five centimetres are expected to fall, with the agency noting there is also a risk of freezing rain and rain.

Please make sure students are dressed accordingly. As our lost and found is quickly filling up please label your child's belongings.

Agape and Centre De Bénévolat

Students can continue bringing food donations! We appreciate all the donations that have been brought in to date!

According to the Food Drive Calendar this week we are collecting the following:

November 25th- Canned vegetables

November 26th- Pasta

November 27th- Laundry detergent

November 28th- Coffee, tea, and sugar

November 29th-Condiments

Dates to remember

December 20th- Breakfast with Santa

Have a wonderful week!

Crestview Team